Abstract

An abstract

1 Introduction

An introduction contains words.

Often it will have citations, as well [1; 2].

2 Methods

Often we do things, these things can be called methods[1].

Tables 1 also get pretty frames.

Woah Paragraphs are bolded.

Table 1: see! I'm framed!.

columns	are	often	bold
and	contain	useful	data

Another bold para because I can. [3]

NeuroData

3 Results

We made science happen.

3.1 yes, we have subsections too

words can even go under them.

4 Discussion

The world is better because YOU are in it [4].

Appendix A   thought you were done?

ya…. appendices are also a thing.

A.1   with sub sections

yup.

NeuroData

A.1.1 and sub sub sections

sorry.
